ATLANTA, April 17, 2008 -- ARAMARK, a world leader in providing professional services, has renewed its sponsorship with the Tour de Georgia presented by AT&T, North America's premier professional cycling stage race. The sixth annual Tour de Georgia is scheduled for April 21 -27, 2008. The Tour features 12 host venues and ARAMARK will provide catering services at seven of the finishing venues. The race will begin in South Georgia on Tybee Island and will travel through cities such as Augusta, Gainesville, and Dahlonega, and will finish in downtown Atlanta at Olympic Centennial Park. This is the fourth year in a row that ARAMARK will be providing catering services for the Tour de Georgia.

"ARAMARK provides quality food for the Tour de Georgia and service unmatched in the industry," said Chris Aronhalt of Medalist Sports. "ARAMARK utilizes its network of college operations to make every hospitality experience one of the best for a sporting event of this kind."

ARAMARK Higher Education will be providing catering services in the exclusive Peloton Club, hospitality venues for all stages of the race in the following host cities: Savannah, Augusta, Gainesville, Road Atlanta, Dahlonega, Brasstown Bald Mountain, and Atlanta (Centennial Olympic Park). ARAMARK's buffet-style menu for the race is designed to implement a specific theme that ties to the city the stage of the race is in. In beautiful Savannah, ARAMARK will provide a number of Southern style dishes but one of the favorites for that area is Shrimp over Cheese grits or Sweet Potato Soufflé. The buffet also contains a dessert display and is complimented by a hosted bar featuring a sample of Beers and Wines.
