- DETAILS: Road Atlanta is a multi-purpose special events facility located on 750 park-like acres in Hall County. The challenging, hilly 2.54-mile, 12-turn Grand Prix track is regarded as one of the finest road courses in the world. Road Atlanta is host for one of the most important sports car races in the world, the Petit Le Mans (Oct 1-4, 2008), which attracts 100,000 fans from 35 states and 18 countries. In 2007, Road Atlanta was host to the Gwinnett Bike Fest, and is home to the Kevin Schwantz Suzuki School and the Skip Barber Racing School. Road Atlanta is a family and spectator friendly venue, and the track has taken additional measures to ensure ease of access around the facility for physically challenged guests.
- CONTACT: Road Atlanta is located at 5300 Winder Highway, Braselton, Ga. 30517. For information visit www.roadatlanta.com or call 1-800-849-RACE or 770-967-6143.
- PARKING: Gates will open at 8 a.m. There is a parking fee of $8 per car for fans arriving by automobile; spectators arriving on foot or on bicycle are free.
- RACE VIEWING: The hilly terrain and multiple “s-turns” add an additional degree of difficulty for the competitors, and at the same time the fan-friendly venue provides incredible views for spectators. Fans are encouraged to ride/bring their bikes and ride around the infield roads to access various vantage points. Fans can even park in the infield, then ride. The TTT will be run counter-clockwise on the track; prime viewing spots include:
